

REPORT

A Two- day training of Trainers (ToT) on women and local governance was held at zilla bhawan in Geyzing on March – 14-15, 2022. The programme was organized by department of political science, Sikkim Government College, Gyalshing in collaboration with Rajiv Gandhi National Institute of Youth and Development, Sriperumbudur, Tamil Nadu. The programme was held to generate awareness on local governance and encourage women participation. The inaugural session was attended by Geyzing ADC (Development) Surat Kumar Gurung as the chief Guest and BDO Bishal kumar Subba as the Special Guest. The resource person of the programme were Prof. Prabhat Kumar Dutta (St. Xaviers University, Kolkota). Dr. Durga Parsad Chettri (Sikkim University), Prem Kaushik (Field Facilitator, SIRD & PR), Dr. Ashish Tha (Central Coalfield Limited, Ranchi) And Dr. Bitu Subba (Sikkim Government College, Gyalshing). There were around 50 Participants consisting of Panchayat members from six GPUS under Gyalshing BAC, SRLM officials, SHG members and MA Students from Sikkim Government college, Gyalshing.

The Programme provided comprehensive information about panchayati Raj institutions and the role of women. The participants were made aware about the importance of their role, responsibilities and duties in policy decision making process. Overall, the programme highlighted the basic aspects of local governance, challenges and the possible means one can bring for the development and the betterment at the local, state and national level.

Resource Person: Shri Prem Kaushik (Field Facilitator, SIRD & PR), Prof. Prabhat Kumar Dutta (St. Xaviers University, Kolkota). Dr. Durga Parsad Chettri (Sikkim University) on Two Day Training of Trainers Programme.